

294 THE ISLES AND SHRINES OF GREECE

Speeches were made in German, French, English, Italian, Latin and Greek, and the American contribution was an Alabama negro melody set to German words and sung by a quartette, three of whom were college professors. Shades of Pindar!

Our return trip to Athens was made by rail, and our ten days' journey was finished in the allotted time.