THE WILKIE GALLERY,
WITH NOTICES BIOGRAPHICAL AND CRITICAL.

The WILKIE GALLERY is intended to embrace all the best works of this highly-esteemed artist, and to include alike faithful copies of those well-known domestic scenes whose merit is acknowledged by the admiration of a whole nation—inferior samples of which may be found in the homes of the million—and those inestimable masterpieces of the same pencil which have been hitherto confined to the cabinets of the connoisseur, and the galleries of the opulent. The Publisher is well aware that many of WILKIE'S best Pictures have been repeatedly engraved in every variety of style and size; but, with the exception of the masterly original plates executed by Burnet, Raimbach and others, which, in addition to their being very large in scale, have now by the lapse of time become scarce, and consequently costly, few of these copies have succeeded in giving more than a mere general idea of the composition of the originals; they have either been too minute in size, or too meagre in finish, to be successful. To retain within the compass of a moderate engraving all the variety and delicacy of expression for which WILKIE is so inimitable, is, it must be confessed, no easy task; but the Publisher feels justified by the arrangements he has made for the employment of the most eminent Engravers, in asserting, that, on this occasion, these essentials have been attained in the highest possible degree. The plates will be all executed on steel, and only a limited number of impressions taken: the paper and printing will be of the highest class.

The Engravings are accompanied by original critical notices from the pen of an artist whose abilities peculiarly qualify him to explain and illustrate those numerous points of excellence with which the compositions of WILKIE abound. The work will also comprise a biography of the Painter, written expressly for the WILKIE GALLERY.

FORTY DAYS IN THE DESERT,
On the Track of the Israelites; or, a Journey from Cairo, by Wady Feiran, to Mount Sinai and Petra. By W. H. BARTLETT. With Twenty-seven Engravings on Steel, from Sketches taken on the Route, a Map, and numerous Woodcuts. Super-royal 8vo. Price 12s. 6d. cloth gilt.

The object of this volume is to give distinct and graphic pen and pencil sketches of the ROUTE OF THE ISRAELITES from Egypt to Mount Sinai, dwelling particularly upon the beautiful oasis of WADY FEIRAN, and the neighbouring mountain, the SERBAL, confidently pronounced by Lipsius and other savans to be the real Sinai. The Work also embraces notices of the CONVENT OF ST. CATHERINE, MOUNT HOR, and the extraordinary city of PETRA.

The Illustrations have all been drawn upon the spot with every attention to accuracy. The interest of the subject, much as has been written upon it, is, perhaps, on the increase, much light having been thrown upon it by recent researches. In a pictorial point of view, it is full of interesting materials. The halting-places of the Israelites, the mountain of the law-giving, the coasts of the Red Sea, the wonderful rock scenery and excavated temples and tombs of Petra, combine to present a wild and singular variety for illustration.

By the same Author, uniform with the above,
