

Handwritten text at the top of the page, oriented upside down relative to the drawing. The text is partially legible and appears to be a list of names or titles, possibly related to the architectural work or the publisher.

