THE TU-TZE'S TOWER A novel. By LOUISE BETTS EDWARDS, author of "A Friend of Cara's," etc. Illustrated by John Sloan. 12mo. Cloth, extra . . . $1.00 The book is one of extraordinary strength, well worth reading, well worth thinking about, and well worth arguing about. — The Ledger, Philadelphia. A VICTIM OF CONSCIENCE A novel. By MILTON GOLDSMITH, author of "Rabbi and Priest," etc. Illustrated by Stephen J. Ferris. 12mo. Cloth, extra . . . $1.00 There is much in the story that is new and unhackneyed, and many intensely human scenes and characteristics. — Courier-Journal, Louisville, Ky. KENT FORT MANOR A novel. By WILLIAM HENRY BABCOCK, author of "The Tower of Wye." Illustrated by W. Sherman Potts. 12mo. Cloth, extra. . . $1.00 The interest of this weird novel centres around a hypothesis tentatively broached by the author that there is such a thing as heredity of memory. — Dispatch, Pittsburg. THE ARCHIEREY OF SAMARA A semi-historical romance. By HENRY LIOWIZI, author of "The Weird Orient," "In the Pale," etc. Illustrated by Stephen J. Ferris. 12mo. Cloth, extra . . . $1.00 Depicts with great strength and realism the sufferings of the Jewish race under the Russian rule. — Public Opinion, New York. THE WESTCOTES A novel. By A. T. QUILLER-COUCH. Illustrated by J. L. G. Ferris. 12mo. Cloth, extra . . . $1.00 A sweet and tranquil idyll, fluttered, but not overwhelmed, by genuine passion. — Tribune, New York.	INDIA, PAST AND PRESENT By C. H. FORBES-LINDSAY. Beautifully illustrated with 50 full-page photogravures, and tastefully bound in two volumes. Crown 8vo. Cloth, extra. Ornamental, gilt tops, in cloth box (with slip covers) . . . net, $4.00 Three-quarters crushed morocco, gilt tops . . . net, $8.00 By mail, 40 cents additional. There has been a want for a modern comprehensive work upon India, whose diversified physical characteristics, fascinating history and curious commingling of races presents a theme of extraordinary interest. Mr. Lindsay is fitted by long residence in the country—the land of his birth in fact—and by familiarity with its history, to write with authority, and he has produced a work of value written in a very interesting way. JAPAN AND HER PEOPLE By ANNA C. HARTSHORNE. Beautifully illustrated with 50 full-page photogravures and a map, and tastefully bound in two volumes. Crown 8vo. Cloth, extra. Ornamental, gilt tops, in cloth box (with slip covers) net, $4.00 Three-quarters crushed morocco, gilt tops . . . net, $8.00 By mail, 40 cents additional. Few authors have been more thoroughly in unison with their subject than Miss Hartshorne. A resident for many years in the land of the cherry blossom, during which a train of fortunate circumstances threw her into intimate connection with some of the most intelligent and highly educated Japanese, and yet sympathizing most heartily with the humble aspirations of the peasantry, entering into the daily life of the people everywhere, and loving them and their country almost as if she had been "to the manner born," Miss Hartshorne's book will, we think, become the handbook for all who want to know the most beautiful country and most wonderful people of the Far East. EUROPEAN and JAPANESE GARDENS* A beautiful new work upon old-world gardens, with 148 illustrations of celebrated gardens. Published under the auspices of the American Institute of Architects, and edited by the Secretary, Glenn Brown. Large 8vo. Cloth . . . net, $2.00 By mail, 16 cents additional. This new garden book is far more varied and more interesting than most of its forerunners in the field. — The Critic, New York. BREVITIES Being more Crankisms. By LISLE DE VAUX MATTHEWMAN and CLARE VICTOR DWIGGINS. With 100 illustrations. Square 16mo. Cloth, elaborate side decorations . . . net, $0.80 by mail, .88 Ooze calf. Full gilt edges, in box . net, 1.20 by mail, 1.28 Merciless in its exposures of the conceit and complacency of the general public. — The New York Observer. IN HAPPY HOLLOW By MAX ADELER (Charles Heber Clark), author of "Out of the Hurly-Burly." With 68 illustrations by Dwiggin and Rountree. 12mo. Cloth, extra, ornamental side . . . $1.25 This is perhaps the best book by Max Adler (Charles Heber Clark), author of "Out of the Hurly-Burly," "Captain Bluit," etc. It has good fun, good characterization.
<h3 style="text-align: center; margin: 0;">The New Juveniles</h3> LIMBER LEW, THE CIRCUS BOY By EDWARD S. ELLIS. Illustrated by Was-son. 12mo. Cloth, extra . . . net $0.80 by mail, .92 This is one of the author's stories of boy life in modern times; there are no Indians in it, but plenty of action and incident of the kind that interests the young, and the story is itself wholesome and with a good moral. CHESTER RAND, or A NEW PATH TO FORTUNE By HORATIO ALGER, JR. Illustrated by Was-son. 12mo. Cloth, extra . . . net, $0.80 by mail, .92 A new book by the author of "Ragged Dick," "Tattered Tom," "Only an Irish Boy," and many others, is sure of a welcome from young readers. "Chester Rand" will share the popularity of Mr. Alger's previous books.
