

The tenants of the tombs to dust decay,
Nescient of self, and all beside are they ;
Their sundered atoms float about the world,
Like mirage clouds, until the judgment-day.
Omar Khayyám (Whinfield's translation, 242).