

LEBANON

CHHÎM
EXPLORATIONS 2004

Tomasz Waliszewski, Ingrid Pectar

LEBANON

The work field covers the area of the site of CHHÎM, located in the north-western part of the Lebanese coast, north and northwest of and north of the site of the Polish Camp. The main objective of the work is to explore the site and its regional context. The main objective of the work is to explore the site and its regional context. The main objective of the work is to explore the site and its regional context. The main objective of the work is to explore the site and its regional context.

The main Polish Lebanon team was directed by Dr. Tomasz Waliszewski, assisted by Jolanta Waliszewska and Mr. Andrzej Waliszewski. The main objective of the work is to explore the site and its regional context. The main objective of the work is to explore the site and its regional context. The main objective of the work is to explore the site and its regional context. The main objective of the work is to explore the site and its regional context.

The mission is greatly assisted by Mr. Ibrahim Haddad, Director General of Antiquities, for his always generous interest in the work, and by Messrs. Habib Tabbal and Ahmad Jabbour of the DCA for their effectiveness in dealing with the day-to-day operations, including being on duty throughout the excavation work.