

of new by Us built and to be built, to those of the Vicars of our Church aforesaid for the time being, under this manner and form that is to say, That Wee and our Successors Bishops of Bath and Wells may be holden to conferr the Chambers with th' appurtenances in the said Place built and to be built to every Vicar of the same Church, that is to say every Chamber with his Appurtenances to be had and Enjoyed so long as they shall be Vicars of the same Church, and make their personall abode in the same, Soe that it shall be we and our Successors to conferr and assign the said Chambers when they shall bee void to such Vicars of the said Church as shall please us, att the free will of Us and our Successors, And wee doe further ordain that the Vicars of our Church aforesaid when they shall have gotten Habitations by the Collation of us or our Successors, if they shall leave the said Chambers, and not dwell in them by the space of six months (without a reasonable cause by Us or our Successors to be allowed) shall be ipso facto deprived from the said Chambers so that without a new collation it shall not be lawfull for them to returne to the same Chambers. Moreover Wee doe ordain that the Vicars of the said Church inhabiting the said Chambers as aforesaid, living together att meat and drinke att the Common Costs and Expenses, may have to their Common Use the Hall, Kitching, Bakehouse, and all other Houses in the said Place built and to be built. And that Wee the better Excite the said Vicars so to live together in Common att Meat and Drinke, att the Common Costs and Charges, Wee doe grant for us and our Successors to the Vicars of the said Church for the time being (the speciall Licence of our said Sovereigne Lord the King for that purpose first being had) Tenn Pounds Sterling Money of yearly Rent, that is to say, an Hundred Shillings, to be perceived out of all the Lands, and Tenements which John Randolfe, and Joan his Wife whilst they lived held in the Mannor of Congresbury. And other Hundred Shillings out of all the Lands, and Tenements which William Cammell

and Jo
of eith
to hold
and liv
Tenem
deferre
from t
ments
Rent, saving
Cham
Comm
Cham
such I
Ordain
often a
the sa

Successors in our Mannor of Wookey for Term rly on the Ffeast of St. Michael, To have and ecessors, Vicars Inhabiting the same Chambers, said to whose hands soever the said Lands and shall happen the Payment of the said Rent to be said Term (which God forbid) that then and for the said Vicars the said Lands and Teneuntill they shall be fully satisfied of the said ence whatsoever for that purpose not required, on that the Vicars dwelling out of the said the said Chambers (Except they live att the and Drink with other Vicars living in such e Rent aforesaid, but upon the Receipt of any ould bee utterly excluded, Moreover, wee doe id Church inhabiting the said Chambers, soe bers to the said Church of St. Andrew, or from ecompenze of this Benefit be bound to say the