

THE ILLUSTRATED EXHIBITOR

No. 19.]

OCTOBER 11, 1851.

[PRICE 2D.

Greece and Grecian Contributions.

GREECE, once the land of freedom and of all that was beautiful in art—where Homer sung, and Phidias gave the “tidings of peace were written”—Greece, which after a series of successive changes, has been formed into an

THE ORIGIN OF THE DIMPLE.

life to the inanimated marble—where the truths of Christianity were early promulgated, and in whose language independent state, under the protection of the leading powers of Europe—is represented on a small scale in the